General

I forward to day by mail my Returns for April 1863. The Clerks in my dept though employed from Civil life are Non-Conscripts as you will observe by reference to my No 2. Can I retain them?

My No 2 also shows that Mr. Cary's pay stopped on the 20th ult, but expecting a favorable reply to my letter of 22nd April, he consented to remain. He performed all the duties required of him up to the 30th April. Can I pay him up to that time? He has since left. In my letter to you I asked to be furnished with an Order for the "Proclamation" but have not received any answer to my letter of 20th April. I am still without one.

By Express to day I forward my Returns for First Quarter 1863. Being the first quarterly returns I have had occasion to send on I should be glad to have them examined without delay. Irregularities if any, report that they may be corrected at once and avoided in future.

I presume my Forms No 3 & 15 constitute my Master & Pay Roll of all Extra Duty Men in my Dept. I propose commencing on the 1st June to pay them in accordance with Act of Congress in relation to Compensation for Detached & Detached men.

Be pleased to give me a General instruction in relation to the same. Very respectfully, Your obedient servant

owing to the rationing this month cannot receive

Head Quarters Petersburg
February 2nd 1863

At four months ago Maj. Payne was assigned to duty in this place in charge of the Clothing Bureau. but very soon resigned on account of ill health. and an appointment has been made to fill the vacancy. There is a large lot of Clothing here now ready for distribution, and a great deal of the Army has wanted any efficient officer to take charge of the department. I would respectfully recommend Mr Geo. C. Reid to be Commissioner and assigned to that duty. Mr Reid has been a Merchant of Norfolk for a number of years, is a business man, has been a Clerk in the Quartermaster Dept for the past twelve months, and is thoroughly acquainted with the duties of the office.

I feel well satisfied in recommending Mr Reid and if he is appointed, he will discharge the duties with ability and energy, and with great service to the Government.

Statement of Hons. J. L. Sneed
and G. G. Vest.

Relation to robbery of May. J. Rea, of Govt.
funds.

Thomas L. Mead, on his ^{honour} oath, states that he was assistant adjutant General of the Army, Forces Division from its organization to the end of the year 1863. - that during that time Major John Reid was Commissary of Subsistence of that Division - that he, the said Mead, was inti-mately acquainted with the said Reid, & was thoroughly informed as to the manner in which he discharged his duties as Commissary - that he knows the said Reid to have been at all times an extremely cautious, prudent, & vigilant officer, ~~who~~ more anxious to find & protect the interests of the Government than his own - that he was always careful of these - that it was his right to let no one handle or have access to the public funds in his possession - that he kept them carefully locked in an iron chest, whenever they were possible, and other times in the most secure chest that could be had & transacted that it was in this manner that the funds which were stolen by Bailey were kept - that the said Bailey had been with Reid as his clerk from the very be-ginning of the war, & was fully trusted by him except in the matter of access to his public funds - so that Maj. Reid trusted no one - that no one so far as even I heard was questioned Bailey's honesty & fidelity - to my career that the said Mead, who mixed with him, had the fullest confidence in his integrity, & often wondered that Reid did not entrust him with the guard-ianship of the public funds at times - that the funds were lost without the slightest neglect of or inattention to duty on the part of Major Reed; that with these public funds the said Reed kept a large amount of gold & silver funds belonging to himself, & that there were stolen of Bailey at the same time - that the said Reed made every immediate effort to recover Bailey & regain the public funds; & that the said Reed was & is wholly blameless in the premises.

Thomas L. Head

Richmond - Nov. 25 - 1864

Geo. G. Vest ^{in honor} ~~made oath~~ and says that he has read the foregoing statement by ~~Major~~ Thomas L. Sneed, and knows the same to be true and correct.
The said Vest messed with Maj. Reid and slept in the same tent for three months. Maj. R. was at the time Commissary General for the Mississippi Troops under Maj.
Gen. Price, and kept his funds in a strong wooden chest to which no one was permitted access but himself. The said Vest also visited the army after Maj. Gen. Price's army had crossed to the Eastern side of the Mississippi River and messed with Maj. Reid for some weeks. Maj. Reid was at all times unusually careful of his money and papers, so much so as to provoke the remarks of his in-timate friends. Bailey had the confidence of affiant and was unusually popular in the army. He was looked upon as a vigilant and faithful officer, loyal to our cause, and personally upright. Affiant ^{the} knows that Maj. R. kept in the chest referred to a large amount of gold belonging to himself and the public funds. Maj. R. lies in the district represented in Congress by ^{said Vest} affiant, and bore before the war, and now bears, a character above suspicion.
He was at the commencement of the war a man of large wealth, did not owe a debt in the world, and was proverbial as one of the most scrupulously correct gentlemen in his county.

Sir

Enclosed you will find Quarterly returns for 3rd and 4th quarters 1863. I wrote you in the Monthly return explaining the disadvantages under which I labored. The Quarterly returns are very meagre but embrace all that I have to report. I knew it is out of order to send the quarterly for the 4th quarter before it expires but as I have turned over everything and have no communication with the department, hope you will receive this in its present shape.

Sir

I herewith transmit my Division of Commissary Property for the 3rd 4th & 5th Quarters 1862. These papers include all that I have to render for the year 1862.

The Invoice of Provisions on the enclosed returns was drawn in a case of expected emergency and afterwards disposed of as per return.

Decoy information and asks for instructions

Jan 2/63

Camp near Fredericksburg July 26th 1862

On obedience to the order published in March 1861 - requiring ~~the~~ Commissary of Subsistence to draw on Provision returns (when possible), and allowing only those who draw in Bulk to sell to Officers - I ceased to draw in Bulk, and have been drawing entirely on Provision returns since that time.

The Regiment to which I am attached was transferred from Trimble's Brigade, Euell's Division, to Dole's Brigade, D. H. Hill's Division.
And I find that in the latter I am required to first draw on Provision returns, then take the same returns back in exchange for my receipt, at the end of every ten days, and render regular monthly returns to your Department.

I am also required to sell one ration per day to Officers, collect the money for the same at the end of every month, and make return of such sales to the Brigade Commissary.

All this seems to be in direct violation of the above mentioned order, and while I cannot refuse I am unwilling to change the mode of drawing until I know that it is in accordance with the requirements of the Department. An order requiring a change in my duties, as A.C.S. has ever reached me since March 1864.

Please let me know what the present requirement is at your earliest convenience,
- Oblige

Very Respectfully, Your Obedt. Servt.

In accordance with instructions recd from the Maj Gen Commanding: Col Luckitt directs me to inform you that the Maj Genl is expecting an attack upon Galveston. He wishes you to station on the Island Couriers at intervals of ten (10) miles, prepared at all times to carry dispatches with the utmost speed.

They can be taken to the ferry at San Luis pass, when they will be crossed by private Fallet who is stationed there for that purpose and delivered to a courier who will be in waiting to bring them direct to the Hd Qrs.

Any demonstration of the enemy upon Galveston Island will thus be quickly made known to Col Luckitt who has recd orders to have the 3rd & 2d Infantry Regts ready prepared to march at a moment's notice to your support.

You will please inform me when the couriers are stationed.

Col A. T. Rainey Galveston.

Richmond

The C. G. S. directs that you proceed to the Counties bordering on the Canal above Richmond and make arrangements for procuring and passing speedily forward to this City all the supplies which can be obtained in that section either by purchase or impoundment or loan. Enclosed you will find copies of Circular issued by me upon this subject but as we have as yet, had no returns from those Counties, you are specially charged with bringing to the notice of the Agents & people the importance of contributing at this time every pound of subsistence they can properly spare for the Army. A list of the Officers & Agents in those Counties is furnished herewith, who are hereby instructed to co-operate with you & obey all orders you may give and whenever you deem it necessary, you are authorized to employ special Agents to facilitate your operations. In other sections of the State the people have most nobly responded to the call which has been made on them, and it is believed they will do so wherever the subject is properly called to their notice. But when parties are found to have more than a very moderate supply for their own use & refuse either to sell or to loan it to the Govt. you will exercise the power of improvement which is herewith furnished you.

You will also see or improve transportation whenever necessary.

It is not deemed necessary to give you more specific instructions as, knowing the object in view, your practical knowledge & experience in such matters, will readily suggest the best mode of attaining it.

It will scarcely be necessary for you to proceed further than Lynnhurst, where you will confer with Maj. Gall. & can, by correspondence arrange for operations in other Counties.

The emergency as you are aware is great and your utmost energy is involved in the prosecution of the business committed to you.

Respectfully

Hon. James A. Seaden

Secy. of war

Sir

I respectfully recommend the appointment of Capt. S. V. Reid as captain in the Commissary Department to date from 1st. inst.

Capt. Reid has this day resigned his office as captain in Co. H. 3d. Arkansas Regiment, when he was ~~2d~~ ^{1st} Lieut. in Captain, to take position in this Bureau where his services are deemed very important. He was detached from his Regiment, not at his request, for this duty, & has operated to the entire satisfaction of the Department; & now resigns that office because it is believed that he can render greater service in the Commissariat. His previous rank, & the fact that he has been fully tried for nearly four five months & shown himself competent are reasons why this Bureau departs from its usual rule of appointing each officer on merit in the first instance.

As he is wanted badly at his post in Knoxville, it is respectfully suggested that the public interest require that he be appointed promptly.

Very Respectfully

John O. S. S. S.

Wilmington Aug 9th 1863

Maj. S. B. Brewer C.S.

Richmond Va.

I Major, Your favor just received enclosing objections being Apts of months of August, September, October, November & December 1863. I will report the objections separately, and append my explanation which I hope will be satisfactory. To wit No 1. "Returns for August 1863. You should have sent a copy of contract with R. P. Glenn & Co."

Enclosed please find copy of same.

No 2 "Returns for September — Invoice 5. "When goods invoiced they do not correspond, it should be reported as per Jan 901, Rego S. B. account for these losses as per Jan 1105 Rego". At the time these goods were received the Army of Gen. Bragg had fallen back and Gen. Forrest with his Cavalry was pursuing Dalton. At his request I telegraphed for these stores & they were several days on the way. I am satisfied that most of the loss occurred from being in hot case, but very thing was in hurry & confusion most officers having left the post. If necessary I can get Maj. E. T. Rembault's certificate. I reported loss on receipt of Maj. Cummings' Vales on transportation receipt."

No 3 "Receipt No 24 does not state the 2 lbs Brand transferred from No 1 & my note above 17045" shipped them & it is most likely on my Invoice, but seems to have been omitted through carelessness of Clerk looking I am compelled to return such matters. Have written to Maj. Cummings the consequence & will forward the amt under his signature."

No 4. "Certificate No. Why did not your Agent obtain the name of the commissary of the fords of Gen. Sherman's command which seized the 31 Head of Cattle? My Agent had these cattle in pasture near Ruggold over

he is charge of a herdman. At the time of the retreat of our Army, squads of cavalry were sent out all over the country to collect up and drive off all cattle, Sheep hops, private or public, to prevent their falling into the hands of the enemy. It was one of these squads of Cavalry, who had no officer with them as reported by the herdman, which rode into the lot and took possession of these cattle, drove them off, would give no receipt. Both my agent & myself made diligent enquiries & I went myself & sent several times to the Army, of E. Tenn but failed to find out who got them.
I applied as will be seen by enclosure marked "No 4" to Capt Shelby C.S for Gen. Buckner, from whose endorsement you will see that detail men were driving off cattle & also have, Wilson endorsement. My herdman could not resist this order, fence & every effort has been made to discover who they were but without success.

No 5. "Certificates 42 & 43 require other evidence than your own, see par 1106 Regs." ~~As regards~~ to No 42, it is a matter of almost impossibility to get the evidence required as Dalton where most of my agents were is now in the enemy's lines, & the agents scattered throughout the Army as they were detailed men. The hides you will find accounted for in my Report for 4th Quarter ~~Properly~~ ^{Properly} ~~Return~~. No 43 see certificate of Maj R. J. Nelson C.S enclosed.

No 6. Enclosure 44 "Why do not Major Cummings receipt for the 97 Sacks Salt?" This salt was shipped during the confusion consequent upon the evacuation of Northern Va I received verbal notification from Maj Wm. A. Ayres the 2nd that Brig Gen B. Johnson, who was then at Dalton had ordered all of the stores at Dalton removed at once as there was imminent danger of the enemy's entry, Dalton Under this order, I loaded on the Cars all of the stores I had and under same name loaded on all stores which were then in depot. The Supr & Agent of the R. R. Co had left, the 2nd and myself was left alone to get off stores. Upon arrival in Atlanta Maj Cummings states that the Commandant of Port sent an officer with men to unload all cars promptly, return them for other stores & there everything was thrown up & down the track in Atlanta with no regularity. This was the reason given me by Maj Cummings for refusing to give receipts for any stores received there at that time. (See Maj Wilson's Certificate & Maj Cummings' Certificate enclosed in papers of 1st Quarter).

No 7. The Voucher No 48, the loss of the cattle must be substantiated by the affidavit of E. F. Field. I stated in my certificate that Mr. Field had been ordered off. I am fully satisfied of the truth of his statement in the letter enclosed in my report, from statements of parties who refused to cattle, belonging to government which were picked up by other stores, but if necessary I will hunt up Mr. Field's & get his testimony in form of affidavit.

No 8. Returns for 3rd Quarter.

Form 8. "Your certificate needed to Vouchers 14, 143, 145, 146, 147, 148, 151, 153, 154, 155, 156, 160, 162, 164, 165.
166

Enclosed please find the duplicates signed. You will please return by mail the originals in your possession.

No 9. Voucher 17. You pay for 865th that state up only 815. That is an error of my check and oversight in myself for which I can offer no other excuse & must therefore stand charged with it. I Dept: send fit. Same case in Voucher 46, Voucher 66, 90, Voucher 109. It would be impossible to get other witnesses now than Agent whose name is now better up. The party from whom about was Fryke is in the trunk's line, but in Voucher 15th & in addition of columns & do not know how to satisfy it and except by making out the account anew. Will that be required.

No 10. Form 9. Voucher 4. A copy of the printed notice should be sent with Voucher. These notices were given out to him, and stimulate parties being found their enemies, to let the people generally, know who were my country agents & no conspicuous imposition, much of which was going on & was creating great dissatisfaction among the people. I have none of them left.

No 11. Vouchers for expenses of agents cannot be made out in detail. To do this is simply impossible. My agents are out often for weeks, stopping wherever they can get lodging & something to eat, in present condition of affairs there are no Hotels, these agents have to send their assistants off to gather up stock, they often are ignorant men, & so it is impossible for them to have pen & Vouchers by, all of the time for such stoppage.
Refer to Maj. R. T. Wilson's affidavit on subject.

No 12. It was an omission to have not accounted for my books on Form 12. I have them in my possession & will send them on next property return.

House rent should be paid by 2 Masters, but at that time I had been under the wrong impression about it. Such errors shall not occur again.

This whole up objections to 3 Quantities. I have answered them to the best of my knowledge & belief. If I must do any thing more, please state it & I will try to make my life all right.

Respectfully,
S. H. Hild

more good can be effected, I would be glad if it would please you to order me to some other

Mr. William C. Rucker son of the Hon. A. Rucker of Mo. Co. ~~and late Gov.~~ of New Mexico, being desirous of entering the Military Service of the Country will submit to you some testimonials of a high Character in his behalf. I most cheerfully write in all that is said of him - I have known him from a small boy and take pleasure in saying that he is a young man of much promise & of excellent moral character. I have told him of the difficulty of obtaining a commission in the Army, but if one can be conferred upon him, suitable to his years, I am sure he will find nothing of it.

Selma Ala. Sept. 21. 64

Dear Bro Kenfroe,

I write to you in behalf of the Board of Trustees of "The Orphan Asylum for the State of Ala" of which his excellency Gov Watts is Pres & Ex Gov. Thayer Vice President. We are sadly in need of a General Agent to collect funds for the above institution. We have no regular Agent in the field, & are sadly in need of your services. We have on hand over $200,000, & desire to raise this to one million. Can you not come & help us? What greater good can be done for the Soldier than to cause him to know that if his body fall, his children shall be housed, fed, clothed, warmed & educated mentally, morally, & physically? — I regret to hear that your throat has suffered from such hard army work.

Come home & rest your throat by gentler labors in our Agency.

My family have all been sick.
I have just returned from the Cosa River. We collected $8000—for Army Disfranchisement, & $4500. for Orph. Asylum. We have contracted for Shelby Springs & 1350 Acres attached as the home for the children.

Come & see me, if you pass by at any time.

Very Affly
A. J. Affrading,
Secretary of Orph. Asy.
Board of Trustees.

I accompany this with a Circular.

Col.

I have the honor to tender my resignation as chaplain of the 10th Alabama Regiment to be received immediate and unconditional, and for the following reasons.

The friends of humanity in the state of Alabama have resolved to establish an immense Orphan Asylum with special reference to ameliorating the conditions of indigent Orphans who have been made such by the casualties of the war. About eight months ago I was elected General Agent to raise the endowment of this Institution.

I then declined to undertake the work and remained in the army. Recently the Board of Trustees have again urged me to become their Agent, as you may learn from the accompanying letter from the Secretary of said Board, and I have signified my purpose to accept, provided my resignation as chaplain is accepted. Besides, this Brigade has three other chaplains, while one efficient chaplain might successfully and sufficiently attend to the ministerial duties of a Brigade of its present size.

I am, general, Very Respectly Your Obedt Servant

W. D. Kempf

To Col. John. H. Burnell, Commanding the 13th Regiment of Texas Cavalry:

Col, I hereby respectfully tender to you my Resignation, as Chaplain of your Regiment, to take effect immediately, for the following reasons: I am affected with chronic Bronchitis, so that I cannot, with safety to myself, exercise during the autumn and winter months; my age admonishes me that I could achieve more good at home than in the army, especially since the "conscription" has taken so many from my Community; I shall soon be left without an Overseer, and in that event, I shall have no one to attend to my interests, or keep in subjection my slaves. Please see the Certificate appended below.

Sept. 30th 1862.
John B. Ruffin.

Rev. John B. Ruffin of the 13th Regiment of Texas Cavalry having applied for a Certificate on which to ground his resignation as Chaplain of said Regiment, I do hereby certify that I have carefully examined said Officer, and find that he is afflicted with chronic Bronchitis, and that in consequence thereof, he is, in my opinion, unfit for duty. I further declare my belief that he will not be able to discharge his duties during the autumn and winter months.

Col Corley recommended his reappointment along with others in Council's case. The Gen still supposing that Cap R was indifferent about reappointment took no steps in the matter, but it was supposed that the reappointment would be made.
Cap R continued to exercise his duties, but reaction being taken upon Corley's recommendation, he was not a properly bonded officer, his duties being discharged upon notice of his non-confidence. Another officer had to be assigned to the post. (A 2 M to the Medical Purveyors train.) and Cap R was thrown out. Upon mentioning the state of affairs to the Gen, he said that if the Medical officer would forward a recommendation of Cap R's reappointment, he would approve it. The recommendation had been previously sent in, and has since been forwarded with the Gen's endorsement. Cap R is a most efficient officer, was for a long time Hospital Steward with the Med Director, & is more conversant with the wants of the Dept than anyone else. He is withal a gentleman of the highest character, and very deserving of appointment. If you can have the recommendation acted upon, you will not only secure a good officer to the service, but greatly oblige

General,

Some time since Cap Robert New-shaw A 2nd Lt received notice that his nomination had not been confirmed by the Senate, and supposing that it had been actually rejected, he was desirous of going to Col J H Carter's Artillery command where some position had been promised him by Col C, who is his brother-in-law. Cap N called on me and expressed his willingness to be recommitted, as he said he was ^{RECORD DIVISION} conscious of having discharged his duty, and he regarded his rejection by the Senate as rendering it unnecessary for him to have his name brought before them again. At his request I consulted the General as to the effect of the failure of confirmation upon his condition, and at the same time explained to him Cap N's views as to a recommitment, creating the impression that Cap N did not desire it. The Gen thought that Cap N was out of the service & at liberty to join Col Carter. Subsequently Cap N learned that his name had not been sent to the Senate, & that his nomination had not therefore been rejected as he supposed. He was then willing to be reappointed, and without any agency of his.

Sir,

I respectfully ~~in~~ the appointment of Robert M. Remondy as First Lieutenant of Ordnance to take charge of the Ordnance for the Brigade, as provided for by the Act of Congress. - I am not sure that the appointment of a Brigade Ordnance Officer requires the action of the War Department, but I am very desirous of providing for the individual named, and securing his services, as he is so well qualified by education & business habits for any subordinate appointment in the Army. I am afflicted reluctantly to lay by for twelve weeks from a bad, though not dangerous wound in the leg, but hope to resume my duties in time to enter Maryland in the Army.

Sir:

I respectfully ~~submit~~ for Hon^{ble} Howard Robert H. Renshaw, of Maryland, the appointment of Quartermaster for the Medical Purveyor's Department, A. N. Va. as the services of such an Officer are indispensably necessary.

I especially recommend Mr. Renshaw for the position of Q. M., & urge his appointment because by his intimate acquaintance with the general & special wants of this Dept. acquired by his connection with this Office during the last fifteen months, I deem him peculiarly fitted for the discharge of the duties which would devolve upon him, whilst I am confident that by his appointment the government would secure the services of a most efficient Officer.

With the exception of three months in 1862, Mr. Renshaw has been in the service of the Confederate States since June 1861.

Sir.

Oct. 10th 1863

Having been a resident and clergyman of this town for the last 24 years, my time recently, and more especially for the last six weeks, has been in demand by the condition and spiritual necessities of our soldiers for ministerial labour. Since I have been preaching for, and visiting among them, a desire has been expressed that I apply for the position of Post Chaplain. The field is large and important, and no one clergyman can discharge all the duties of this Post and be faithfully located as our Hospitals are, to those among whom he labours. At the solicitation of several I now make application for an appointment as Post Chaplain. In addition to the recommendations which will accompany my application, you desire further suggestions I refer you to Genl. Joseph R. Anderson of your city.

Respectfully yours
Chas. S. S. S.

A. Paul Repiton

We take pleasure in recommending the Rev A. Paul Repiton for the position of Chaplain. As he says -
"The field is a large one, and no one clergyman can discharge all its duties". His services have been very valuable heretofore, and, had he the appointments of Chaplain - feeling as he then would, under no restraint - much more good might be accomplished by him.

Letters Received
A & I G O,

James Island, S.C.

Fort Pemberton, S.C.

I cheerfully add my testimony Capt I B Mayne, as to the efficiency of Lieut. Dr. W. R. Mayne, an officer served under my command since of July 1863, and has given entire satisfaction.
Lieut. Mayne is desirous of seeing service elsewhere, and though I prefer his remaining with his company, I unhesitatingly recommend his transfer, for the reason that he desires it. I believe he would make an efficient Captain of Artillery or Infantry.

I have been very much pleased with what I have myself seen of the soldierly character of St. Remond I am sure from what is said by the officers who have testified to his good & faithful service that he merits the award of the War Dept. and I hope that as he denies it, if it is consistent with the good of the service he may be transferred to some position where he will see more active service. He is particularly well spoken for by officers of better known names who he has served —

Feb. 18th 1864

It affords me great pleasure to state that since 1st Lt. W. W. Rively P.A.C.S. has been in duty with my company he has always shown himself to be a good and efficient officer, always prompt to discharge any duty that he was called upon to perform.
He served with my company during a portion of the siege of "Battery Wagner" on Morris' I.C. viz: from the 26th of July to the 1st of Aug. and from the 21st of Aug. to the 27th Aug. 1863. During the siege he was slightly wounded. On the 3rd of Sept. 1863 he was again ordered to Morris' I.C. as acting quartermaster officer where he remained until said island was retaken by our forces.

While with me Lt. Rively displayed all the qualities of a soldier and officer and would I feel sure do credit, both to himself and the service, in any position which he may be called upon to fill.

Very Respectfully

I therefore ask you, to call such of your friends in Congress, as may be inclined to assist you, to your aid, and if possible, prevail on the President, to present his recommendation to the Senate, for confirmation.

The Regiments composing the Brigade, have been changed so often, from one Brigade to another, that we feel, that in this we have a right to serious complaint. And now, that we are in a Brigade, under a ^{Brigadier} Commander with whom we are satisfied to remain, we cannot see the propriety or justice of one holding his position as Brigadier. If he is qualified for lieut. in command of a Brigade, he is certainly as fully competent for Brigadier. The two positions are about on an equal footing, and the only injury that it can do, is in the ~~way of~~ ^{way of} ~~prejudice~~ ^{prejudice} of feeling to a generous, noble and gallant officer, and the consequent want of power on his part, to vindicate and favor the men under his command, which is given to a full Brigadier.

We feel it severely, and cannot avoid the expression, that we are entitled to a Brigadier, as much as any other soldiers in the service; and can see no sound reason, why Baughn's old 3rd, Gillis's, Hooker's & Stafford's Regiments, should be assigned to a position inferior to other soldiers.

I trust, that you will therefore exert your personal influence, in procuring his confirmation as Brigadier. I do not think that Dickster's name is taken.

Sir,

We beg to call your attention to Col.
L. H. Reynolds' claims to promotion, and to detail a simple narrative of facts in regard to his past services.

He has labored courageously in behalf of our common cause, and ably and energetically supported and superintended the operations of our Army under Genl.
Hoyt in Northwestern Virginia.

The undersigned was for some time with a portion of our Northwestern Army during the past summer and from the officers with whom he conversed, it was ascertained that Col.
Reynolds distinguished himself first & foremost at the battle of Cato's Lane, turning the columns of our Cavalry his entire route. He also commanded his Regt at the battle of Manassas, a commanding the Centre. He sustained some a small party, having, back both the anti-slavery and the Remond's, having, since, to his unhappy loss, the undersigned presumes you are familiar with. I have said, that, I believe, I have, as you were, at the time, were his associates at West Hill, all of whom have been removed.

I have, from Col. Remond's services in the field, but I have accorded to him high administrative capacity in his management of the post at the White Sulphur

It is respectfully, that your

RECORD DIVISION
DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Wicksburg Miss.
Mar. 18th 1863

Sir

The undersigned Commanding Officers in Stevenson's Division take pleasure in warmly recommending Col. Alex-W. Reynolds for promotion

At present he holds one of the Oldest commissions as Colonel in the Provisional Army, and has been continuously in service, as Commander of Brigade, for the last twelve months.

In all the various organizations of Genl E Kirby Smith's Army in East Tennessee, that Command was assigned to him, which fact in connection with Genl Smith's recommendation that he might receive additional rank, is the highest evidence of the good opinion which that Officer entertained of his competency and fidelity.

Resigning from the Old Army he entered ours at an early date, and has been constantly in active service ever since.

He commanded a Regiment at Carnifax, and received honorable mention from his Commanding Officers.

Col Reynolds
at the present time, is in Command of the Tennessee Brigade in Genl. Stevensons Division, and is we believe entirely acceptable to both Officers and men.

We beg leave most respectfully to urge that the reward of rank, redounds greatly to the advantage of the service in the stimulus to exertion not only to the recipient, but to all - that the rank of the Commander gives weight to his authority, and the Command now above his rank will probably be always held by Col Reynolds.

We believe in this case, that the promotion requested would be received as a graceful acknowledgement of the services & claims of a meritorious and popular Officer.

My dear Sir

I regret I will not see you again before I leave Richmond. my orders forcing me to depart before your return home.

I feel satisfied that my claims have not been properly brought before the President.

Four times have I been recommended by my commanding Genl (Lt Genl E. R. Smith) for the appointment of Brig^{ad} Genl. I have been in command of a Brigade for the last eight months and Lt Genl Smith testifies to the fact that my Brigade is not only the best drilled but the best disciplined Brigade in his army. Since this war began I have been under fire six times and each time have I won the approbation of those under whom I served. Of the list recently recommended for promotion by Lt Genl Smith, all have been appointed except myself. Now this is, I cannot understand especially as I have been so often and so strenuously urged, and my record will exhibit greater and more active service, I am professionally a Soldier and to be thus overlooked causes no little mortification to my military pride, and great disappointment to my friends, especially to Genl Smith and my brothers in arms.

Thank God. These disappointments have not in the least lessened my patriotism or dimmed my ardor for our cause. I shall fight on and fight on until we are successful or we are overwhelmed. Yet I can not but feel in view of all the circumstances that I am virtually disgraced by the total disregard of my claims - When I entered upon our great cause that if any prejudices existed against me by Southern men they would have been wiped away certainly. I forgot any injuries, fancies or real enmities by me towards them.

4th Brigade, Second Division

March 27th 1863

Sir

The undersigned Field Officers of this Brigade, would respectfully yet urgently recommend and request that, our Brigade Commander, Col. Alex. H. Reynolds - be promoted to the rank of Brigadier Genl.

It is needless that we should here rehearse the military antecedents of Col. Reynolds, well known to yourself. Particularly those connected with our present national struggle, from the very commencement of which his conduct has been meritorious, gallant and devoted, winning the commendation of his superiors and without exception, the ardent attachment of his troops. We but reflect the universal desire of this Brigade, as far as it is known to us, when we ask that promotion and rank for Col. Reynolds to which we consider him so justly entitled by both his career and character as an officer.

Apart from the consideration of the just claim to promotion which we recognize in Col. Reynolds high merit, there are reasons of direct interest to ourselves, in soliciting that he be advanced from the rank of Col. to that of Brig. Gen. It is scarcely necessary, in this communication, to state how much the character of a Brigade may oftentimes be affected by the rank & consequent influence of its Commander.

His position & title are matters of no little pride with his Command, - and they all soon learn, in camp and on the march, as well as in having for laurels on the battlefield - how many real advantages daily arise from having a Gen. instead of a Col. for Brig. Commander.

For nearly twelve months past, we have been in the same Division with Col. Reynolds; since November last he has been our Brigade Commander and we take sincere pleasure, after so long an association, in expressing, in this mode, our sincere appreciation of his official and personal merit.

The news of Col. Reynolds promotion, as most respectfully urged in this letter, would be received with expressions of genuine, hearty satisfaction throughout our entire Command.

Yours Excellency,
Jefferson Davis
President
Confederate States.

Most Respectfully & Truly Your Obedt. Servt.

On October 9, 1923, we wrote him full information as to the amount of the work, and the estimate cost for reproduction, requesting him to advise us as to his desires by October 16th. as you had the papers withdrawn from file and would hold them for us until that time. pleased if you would submit to the President.
As Mr. Reynolds was my own appointee to

Dear Sir

I fear my frequent letter may prove a bore, but recognizing you as the immediate representative of Charleston in the Provisional Congress, I feel that I can take the liberty of asking your attention to a matter which concerns my son. I was informed today by Cadets who were of the same class with my son at West Point, that to retain a place in the Regular service, it was necessary to make immediate application to the President. My son is now in service at Fort Mifflin where he has been employed for more than sixty days, and ranks as junior first lieutenant in Artillery. He was the senior Cadet at West Point from this State. — I have written this with out his knowledge, but knowing his desire to pursue the military as a profession, and knowing likewise that there will be a great pressure at Montgomery for place, I am inclined to trouble you in the matter.

If you deem it proper to make the application to President Davis, I think he will mollify me, and perhaps my son as I had the misfortune to be detained at the Point for more than six weeks during the past summer by the serious illness of my wife. While there I had the pleasure of frequent interviews with the then Gen. Davis, and again my whole family have occasion to remember with gratitude the kindness of Gen Davis towards Mr Reynolds at a most trying and critical period of her illness. I mention these incumstances not with a view of claiming any particular acquaintance, or of making any positive claim, but simply that he may recognize me, and perhaps my son.

Could you be induced to attend to this matter for me, you will confer a favor upon

Yours

Very Respectfully
G. N. Reynolds

Hon. W. Parker Miles Montgomery.
Ala.

P. S. My son I know would much prefer to be retained in the Artillery service to which he is now attached.

Genl

In accordance with an order received from you I sent an agent to Fulton to examine some pontoon boats at that place which was to be turned over to me for the purpose of making a pontoon bridge across Red River at Dooly Ferry. My agent reports that there is twenty one boats at Fulton a quarter of a mile from the river and not one of the boats caulked or pitched, there is only one ~~cable~~ and it requires at least three - there is no cable to stretch the boats across the river and no plank to make the deck for the wagons to cross the river on, Capt Johnson Post of the Major at Fulton informed my agent that he could have the plank saved for me. Genl, I would suggest to you as Capt Johnson can have the plank saved at Fulton that he proceed immediately to put the boats in a condition to float them down the river to Dooly Ferry with the necessary plank to make the decks, if Capt Johnson has not a sufficient number of men to perform the work we can furnish them from the division, I think I can procure some cables at Washington there was some at that place when I was there last.

I have the honor to submit the enclosed paper in regard to a ~~Quarter~~ Master Major J. Reynolds who has been assigned to this Brigade under an order directing him to report to Maj. Genl. Wheeler to be assigned to the Brigade commanded by Col. Morrison. You will find the facts relative to this appointment in my letter of April 19th 1864 to Maj. Genl. Wheeler, herewith enclosed. About May the 10th Maj.
Reynolds reported to me saying he had received verbal orders from Maj. Genl. Wheeler assigning him to my Brigade. I replied that under the circumstances I could not recognize him without written orders. He then as per enclosed copy made application to Genl. Wheeler to be assigned to duty as purchasing Quartermaster which being referred to Genl. Johnston is disapproved and Maj. Reynolds ordered to this Brigade. I most respectfully ask that this assignment be revoked: and feel it my duty to recommend that the appointment of Maj. Reynolds be cancelled for the following reasons. Since his first reporting to me I have taken the pains to enquire who he was and learned from trustful and reliable men that he was the proprietor of a gambling and drinking establishment in Rome Ga and is himself in the habit of drinking a great deal.

an appointment of himself by the War Dept.
as Major and A. J. M. to report to Major Genl.

ed by Col. Morrison. I presume that this is the brigade referred to and while I have nothing to say against Major Reynolds I have most decided objections to the manner of his appointment and to his being assigned to my Brigade. I have reported upon a tabular statement to Richmond the numbers of my Staff while doing duty in command of the Northern District of Georgia. This Staff is not now with me having been retained on the duty in the Department commanded by Major Genl. Cobb, but it is possible that they may be ordered to report to me.
I do not know Capt. Reynolds and I had determined upon another selection his appointment dates March 16th 1861. At this time Col. Morrison was not in command of a brigade and had not been since November last. And has not been since but his sent in his resignation based upon Surgeon

Col. Morrison has furnished an appointment for a Quarter Master for troops over whom he had only a doubtful prospect of control.

The first part of the document contains a series of lines of text, which appear to be a list or a series of entries. The handwriting is cursive and somewhat difficult to decipher. A horizontal line is drawn across the middle of the page, separating the text into two sections. The text in the upper section is more legible than the text in the lower section. The lower section contains a large, bold, and somewhat illegible word or phrase, which may be a signature or a heading. The overall appearance of the document is that of an old, handwritten manuscript.

Hon. W. G. Harrison
My Dear Sir

An esteemed friend of mine Major R. B. Reynolds late of the U. S. Army forwards to the President Davis to day an application for an appointment in the U. S. army equal to that which he resigned while in service at Santa Fe N. M. His friends here believe that for some reason or other his claims have not received ^{due} ~~the~~ consideration from the War Department & at their suggestion & advice he has consented to present the case for the examination of the President.

Major Reynolds is a native of this county & I know him well. At the breaking out of our war with Mexico he was one of the first in Tennessee to raise the old flag & to heat up for Volunteers. He succeeded in raising two - perhaps three companies of Tennessee Volunteers. His patriotic ardor created him friends who recommended his promotion to President Polk. This was promptly responded to & the office was conferred upon him & he continued to hold it in Mexico Oregon California N. Orleans Fort Smith (Arkansas) & in New Mexico. During that whole time he discharged his official duties with advantage to the country & credit to himself. No one excelled him either as to time or intensity in furthering feeling & sympathy. He is a very worthy man & an excellent officer I desire that a reconsideration of his case should be had. He is sensitive under the existing state of the case & at first felt unwilling to re-apply for a position which under the regulations of the Department he thinks he is entitled to.

I am not personally known to the acting Secretary of War & almost unknown to the President. I have therefore written to you on the part of Major Reynolds friends & bespeak your kind offices in bringing his case before the President or the War office.

Very respectfully, your obt. servt. J. P. McRae.

Sir

I respectfully but earnestly present to your consideration the case of Hon. R.
B. Reynolds of Tennessee. He raised during the war with Mexico three companies of Irish Volunteers - went with our armies to the capital of that Government
- was promoted by President Polk to Paymaster in the U. S. A. did service at San Francisco, ^{California} in Oregon New Orleans other places till at the commencement of the present Revolution being then at Santa Fe N. M. he immediately resigned & made his way directly back to Knoxville. He then visited Richmond the Secretary of War offered him a position inferior to the one he had held for seventeen years. He could not with self respect accept it as every body knows that Major Reynolds was worthy of promotion. In the mean time Judge Humphrey appointed him U. S. Commissioner for East Tennessee & in the faithful discharge of the duties imposed by his appointment as Commissioner. He rendered himself exceedingly obnoxious to our Federal & especially our Union enemies. After the evacuation of East Tennessee by Breckner last August the Tories & Federal soldiers took & destroyed every thing he had. He is ruined, still he is as firm - active & reliable as ever - returned with Longstreet - has been in several fights & especially at Campbell's Station behaved gallantly & continues near the person of that officer fighting as we say in Tennessee on his own hook.

He has seen so much & such varied service as to make himself very useful to the military service & desires a position in which he can render important service to our cause. He is an excellent jurist - an honorable gentleman & a proud & gallant soldier. I do hope you can assign him to some duty worthy of his claims to your consideration & patronage.

I am Very Respectfully Yours Oct. 10

Dear Sir:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a Commission in the Provisional Army of the Confederate States, of Brig. Quartermaster.

If a faithful discharge of my duties for fifteen years in the United States Army, (which Commission I resigned ^{in New Mexico} June 23rd 1861) does not entitle me to a Commission of equal rank in the Confederate Army, then, I ~~despise~~ the private Station becomes the port of honor.

REBEL ARCH

Knoxville, Tennessee,
Sept 25. 1861.

I have the honor to state that I resigned my commission in the U.
S. Army on the 25th of June last; at that time, I was on duty in New Mexico.

Being a Tennesseean by birth and residence, I desired to follow her fortunes in war or in peace. I thought she ought and that she would secede and I informed the Governor (Harris) as early as possible of my determination to visit wherever Tennessee seceded from the Union.
Tennessee seceded June 8th and I resigned June 23rd.

the arrival or intelligence of the result of her vote on the 1st June last.

I mention this circumstance that I may remove any impression which may have been formed unfavorable to me, by a failure to resign earlier, the Secretary of War having informed my friend the Hon. Mr. Welles that I was late in reporting to him.

Resigning at Fort Fillmore, N.M. I came with as much dispatch as possible to this place, where I was detained by bad health from visiting Richmond as early as I had intended.

I wrote to the Hon. L. P. Walker Secretary of War, both from Galveston and New Orleans, that I had resigned and tendered my services to the Confederate States Govt. I also gave him the name of my post office.

As soon as my health permitted

I visited Richmond and called upon the Secretary of War - reminded him of my resignation and the order of my Discharge. Mr. Walker gave me the appointment of "Big Quartermaster", with the title of Major, in the "Provisional Army", to rank from date of Commission.

Having served nearly fifteen years as Asst. Gr. Mr and Paym., I felt that I could not accept a Commission, which lost me fifteen years rank and consequently I declined to accept, as will fully appear by the Copy of my letter to the Secretary herewith inclosed.

The act of the Confederate States Congress authorizes the President to appoint me into the Confederate States Army, with ^{my former} rank as ^{major} General H. A letter from the Secretary of War to an Officer of the U. S. Army, was published in the newspapers.

Sir

Mr. Samuel H. Reynolds of this county, late First Lieut in the First Regt of United States Infantry - an officer of mature years & experience in the service, has recently arrived at home & is an applicant for a position in the Confederate Army. We are informed that Major Hornshell who has been assigned to the 57th Regt has been ordered to do duty with the 45th Regt & that the health of Mr. Maffey who has been transferred to the position of Lieut Colonel of the 57th Regt is such that he may not be able to accept the office or discharge his duties. Should it be the pleasure of the Representatives to appoint Mr. Reynolds a field officer of the 57th Regt it would afford much gratification to the numerous company officers of the 57th who believe him to be an excellent & capable officer.

This letter has been answered, and the 21 - Sept 9th 1864.

Explanations asked given.

W. S. Taylor,

2nd Auditor

Sir

Yours of the 20th inst, is at hand with statement of differences, and has been attended to as far as can be understood. In your letter of remittal, you state that my account for 2nd & 3rd Qrs 1863, have been audited &c, but in your statement of differences you state that the settlement is of my accounts for disbursements made during the 1st & 2nd Qrs 1863. But I will not speculate the differences.

"Voucher 54. Abstract of Disbursements, 2nd Qr 1863, error of 50¢ against the L. I. item extended $29.75 should be $29.25 disallowed."

Voucher 54, Abstract of Disbursements 2nd Qr 1863, is in favor of Maxwell & Rogan in the amount of $210.³⁵/₁₀₀ nor can any voucher be found in the Qr of said amount.

2nd

"The following Requisitions having been filled since officer remained his accounts could not be included therein. Requisitions 4th 3662 for $20,000. 4th 5229 - $5,000 "

The $20,000 was received on the 10th Oct. 1863 during 4th q^r and the $5,000 on the 1st of May 1864 during 2nd q^r. I cannot fully understand what this has to do with the settlement of my accounts for 1st + 2nd or for 2nd + 3rd q^rs 1863. Please explain.

3rd

"The following errors occur in the 3rd q^r 1862. Vouchers Nos. 3. 13. 14. 15. 16. 19 + 20, certificates not signed, no orders &c. also 8th 4th 23. 4th q^r 1862 for same reasons. "

The duplicates of said vouchers have been corrected and are enclosed, on the reception of which you will please return the originals

4th

"Voucher 231. abstract 10 sales to Officers 4th q^r 1862 is for $21.00 but is carried to the abstract $21.50 "

Voucher 231, is itself for $21.50 on the duplicate retained

I would with the greatest pleasure arrange and settle all the differences but I am unable to understand the meaning of some.
Please explain and I remain sir

Dear Sir: Your letter of 27th Oct. last was received by me on the 24th ult. The documents enclosed, by which the C. S. Quartermaster General is directed to the payment of claims of Missourians under the Act of Sept. 23rd 1862, are gratifying proofs of your successful zeal on behalf of our soldiers.

This subject has occasioned me much embarrassment. On my investigation of our State affairs in May & June last I found that the disbursing officers of the C. S. frequently had demands made on them for payment of services in Gen. Price's command during the period when, under that act of Congress, they were properly payable by the Confederacy. On the 1st of July last I issued an extensive order regulating payments by those disbursing officers, and in reference to the subject directed that "where the Confederate States have already assumed the payment of such services, the Missouri mode of first paying for them through the State officers and then presenting a claim transfer on the part of the State against the Confederacy will be abandoned, except where a soldier's discharge covers a time of service to the State in addition to a time of service for the Confederacy; the cases in which payment has been assumed are fully set forth in the Act of Congress, of Sept.

1862.

In the case of an officer entitled to pay under the Act, I sent one of my aids with him to the quartermaster for Arkansas, and he reported that officer, (Lt. Col. O'Bannon, I think) was aware of the existence of the law, & had received instructions in reference to it. I sent my aid to him with the act, to call his attention to the fact that it was mandatory on "any officer charged with the payment of troops, to pay such claims"; and I claimed that he needed no instructions, but must obey the law. The quartermaster admitted the validity of such claims and expressed an anxiety to pay them, but alleged his inability to do so, as an estimate had been made of funds transmitted for such payments. Under the Army Regulations, the financial practice, of the Confederate government, this objection was a valid one. When the act was passed, the War Department should have immediately ordered the pay officers in Arkansas to make an estimate, and call for funds to pay those claims. I immediately set about procuring the necessary information to lay before the quartermaster for the purpose of making an estimate. But about the 20th July we received, in Little Rock complete confirmation of the reports that Vicksburg and Port Hudson had fallen, and Hatchery had been occupied by the enemy. Anticipating an interruption of communication between Richmond and this Department for the sending either of orders or of funds, and unwilling that our soldiers should suffer by it, I issued on the 25th of July last an order suspending the previous instruction, and directing the Paymaster General of the M. S. G. to "pay the M.
State Guard employed in the Confederate service, according to other regulations, and orders on the subject", and to "keep a separate account of such payments as a claim on the Confederate States." Under this order I believe nearly all of those claims have been paid, and at some future time I will claim reimbursement of the State by the Confederacy.

EXECUTIVE GENERAL ORDERS NO. 6.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, LITTLE ROCK, ARK., 4th July 1863.

No. 6.

I. Should the Confederate Congress at its next session consider the propriety of exercising its constitutional right in providing for the election of congressional representatives from Missouri, as it has done in the case of Louisiana and Tennessee, it may be highly important for that body to have authentic information concerning the number and location of Missouri voters exiled from the State. In future elections in Missouri it may become very important to distinguish between the exiles who have retained, and those who have abandoned their domiciles within the State. It is therefore ordered that a Register of Voters be opened in the office of the Secretary of State of Missouri. Every citizen of the State is invited to communicate to that office, (temporarily located at Little Rock, Arkansas,) his name, his age, the county of his residence in Missouri, and the time when his residence there commenced, so that the register may exhibit all the facts showing eligibility to office or right to vote; also his present place of sojourn, or the company in which he serves, in order that the convenience of a majority of the voters may be consulted in selecting places for opening polls.

The commanding officer of each Missouri regiment or detached battalion or company in the service of the Confederate States, is requested to open a register of citizens in his command, or near it, in which each citizen may register the facts above suggested. As soon as he deems the register complete, such commanding officer is requested to transmit the same, with his certificate, to the office of the Secretary of State. Citizens residing in or near any city or town are requested to assemble, select a chairman, and under his direction prepare a register as herein suggested, to be certified by the chairman and transmitted to the Secretary of State. Any citizen who cannot conveniently register himself in either of the two modes above pointed out, is requested to direct a report directly to the Secretary of State.

No citizens rights will be impaired by his neglect to accept this invitation: but his doing so may hereafter greatly facilitate the proof of such rights if contested.

A convenient form of registry is appended to this order.

THOS. C. REYNOLDS,
Governor of the State of Missouri.

HEADQUARTERS MISSOURI STATE GUARDS, LITTLE ROCK, ARK., August 5th, 1863.

MILITARY GENERAL ORDERS
No. 18.

The following regulations having been adopted by the Military Board of the State of Missouri, and approved by the Governor, are published for the information of all concerned:

Aug. 2d, 1863.—4. Paragraph X, of regulations passed by this Board on the 26th April, 1862, is hereby rescinded, and hereafter no disbursing officer of the Missouri State Guard shall issue or pay duplicates until the testimony in relation to the loss or destruction of the original scrip, or certificate of indebtedness, shall have been perpetuated, as the laws of the State of Missouri provide for lost instruments of writing, with the additional proof that the person claiming such duplicate or pay, shall be loyal to the State of Missouri and the Confederate States, and the sufficiency of such testimony shall have been approved by the Governor.

6. When the election or appointment of any person claiming a commission as an officer in the Missouri State Guard, prior to the first day of January last, has not been reported to the Adjutant General of Missouri, a commission will be issued to such person, upon the certificate of the Commander, Adjutant or Inspector, at the time of such election or appointment, of the military district to which such person claims to belong, stating the office to which, and the time at which such person was elected or appointed, and that the officer so certifying has official knowledge of the facts stated in his certificate.

Aug. 2d, 1863.—3. An explanatory of regulation IX, of the Military Board, passed April 26th, 1862, the attention of the disbursing officers of the Missouri State Guard is drawn to the difference between "authority" to do an act, and a "detail" or "order" to do the same act. A person having received "authority" only, being entitled to no pay, and the person "detailed" or "ordered," being entitled "to the same pay and emoluments that he would have been entitled to had he remained with his command, and no more."

4. Where a discharge of a soldier, otherwise regular, certifies service for time beyond the day on which his company was relieved from active service by order of the Governor, or other competent authority, he shall be paid as if his actual service had ceased on that day, except when such soldier shall show that he has been a prisoner in the hands of the enemy up to the time stated in such discharge.

5. An officer or soldier of the Missouri State Guard, who has been made prisoner by the public enemy, during his term of active service, is entitled to the pay and allowances of his rank at the time of his capture, up to the period of his exchange: if he continued a prisoner; and when a paroled officer or soldier shall report to his command without delay, in order to resume his duties either in the State or Confederate service, immediately upon his exchange, he shall be entitled to pay for both the time of his imprisonment and of his parole, notwithstanding his term of service may have previously expired. But if such officer or soldier shall not report punctually to his command, then he shall be entitled to pay only to the date of his parole.

Filed Nov. 6, 1900.
R. & P. O. 634196.

All prisoners rejoining their commands, will be allowed the usual transportation of troops traveling under orders.

6. Where an officer or soldier of the Missouri State Guard has been taken prisoner of war, and taken the oath of allegiance to the United States, and since been exchanged and returned to the Confederate or State service, he will receive pay as if paroled at the date of his taking said oath.

11. In case any officer or soldier shall claim pay for services in the Missouri State Guard, of which service there is no evidence in the office of the proper disbursing officer, such person shall substantiate his claim for payment by the affidavit of himself, stating where, when, and by whom, and the term for which he was mustered into service, and where, when, and by whom he was discharged, (and if not discharged, the reasons for it,) the company, regiment and brigade in which he served, and that he is not indebted to the State of Missouri in any amount not set forth in such claim, and that he has not had, at any time, property in his possession belonging to the State of Missouri, by capture or otherwise, which he has not accounted for according to law, and that he has not received pay or any certificate of indebtedness for such service; which statement shall be verified by the affidavit of one or more credible and disinterested witnesses; and the sufficiency of such evidence shall be determined by the disbursing officer.

So much of the above required affidavit as relates to indebtedness to the State of Missouri, or to the property belonging to the State of Missouri, by capture or otherwise, shall be made by all persons preferring claims against the State of Missouri; the payment of which has been provided for in the regulations of this Board, and if it shall appear by the affidavit of the claimant that he has at any time had property of the State of Missouri in his possession, which he has not properly accounted for, the value of such property, or the amount which he may owe the State, shall be deducted from such claim.

12. When enlisted cavalry soldiers have been dismounted by competent orders, they shall be entitled to pay for the use of their horses, so long as their horses are retained or used by the State; but when a cavalry soldier shall be dismounted from any other cause whatever, he shall not receive pay for the use of a horse until he shall be remounted at his own expense.

II. Under regulations 11, of 3d August, 1863, made by the Military Board of the State of Missouri, in reference to officers and soldiers claiming pay for services, the evidence of an individual being an officer is his commission, that of his being a soldier is obtained from the muster roll or a certificate of service, according to regulations or general orders.

Lost muster rolls may be supplied by duplicates, made out by the mustering officer and approved by the Governor. Where no duplicates can be obtained, rolls will be prepared in the Adjutant General's office, and such persons entered thereon as may establish to the satisfaction of the Adjutant General the facts respecting their having been duly mustered into service. The written certificate of any person who was, at any time during their alleged service, the mustering officer, or an officer of their company, or commanding officer of their battalion, commander or adjutant of their regiment or brigade, or Major General commanding, or his adjutant, will be taken as evidence of such muster into service, on proper identification of the individuals. After such proof of an individual being an officer or soldier, his time of service and the amount due him will be ascertained as prescribed in said regulation 11.

Where an individual, claiming to be an officer, cannot comply with existing regulations for obtaining a commission, he will present such evidence as he may have of his election or appointment to the Adjutant General, and the Governor will decide on the case.

The affidavits required by that regulation to sustain a claim against the State, are not requisite where a proper voucher has been issued in final adjustment of a claim, according to law.

III. Discharges certifying the amount due to a soldier are among the certificates of indebtedness mentioned in regulation 4 of August 2d, 1863, and regulation 11 of August 3d, 1863.

IV. The act of 1st Dec. 1865, "concerning perpetuating testimony," requires that a commission for that purpose shall be granted by a Judge of a Missouri court. But the Governor on behalf of the State waives this formality and consents that evidence taken in the following manner to sustain claims under regulation 4 of 2d Aug. 1863, for lost scrip or certificates, or any other claim not otherwise provided for, shall be regarded as having been perpetuated according to the laws of the State; on notice to the proper disbursing officer, with his consent as to time, place and manner, depositions may be taken before a commissioner of the State of Missouri to take depositions out of the State; the same shall then be duly certified, and may be retained by the claimant or deposited with the disbursing officer, to be submitted for the action of the proper authorities. In all cases the affidavit of the claimant setting forth the facts of his claim, and, if founded on any lost or destroyed scrip or certificate, also the contents thereof and the circumstances of its loss or destruction, will be required by the disbursing officer; and on every claim concerning which testimony is thus perpetuated, the proper disbursing officer shall express his opinion of its correctness.

V. Attention is called to paragraph 1061 of the regulations of the Confederate States, adopted for the government of the M. S. G.—"An officer retiring from the service must make affidavit to his pay account, and to the certificate annexed to it, and state his place of residence and the date when his resignation or removal takes effect."

VI. Several commissioners to take depositions having been recently appointed by the Governor, and their signatures being known to the disbursing officers, claimants will facilitate the adjustment of their claims by making the necessary affidavits before such a commissioner, whenever accessible.

VII. No claim will be adjusted by any disbursing officer of the Missouri State Guard where he is not satisfied that the claimant has been continuously faithful to the State of Missouri and the Confederate States of America.

By order of the Governor and commander-in-chief.

MANNING M. KIMMEL,
Adjutant General State of Missouri.

EXECUTIVE GENERAL ORDERS, (N. 4.)

WAR RECORD

1861-1865

At a regular election, in which over one hundred and fifty-eight thousand qualified voters participated, in time of profound peace, in August, 1860, the people of Missouri, by direct vote, elected a Governor and Lieutenant Governor, who were duly qualified and inducted into office, without opposition, on the 3d of January, 1861, to serve for a term of four years, until their respective successors "shall be duly elected and qualified."

The constitution of the State of Missouri declares "that all political power is vested in, and derived from, the people," and - that the people of this State have the inherent, sole and exclusive right of regulating the internal government and police thereof, and of altering and abolishing their constitution and form of government, whenever it may be necessary to their safety and happiness." It contains no provision whatever for calling a convention of the people. The people act only through regularly elected representatives, and it is an established legal principle, recognized by the Supreme Court of the United States, in the case of the Rhode Island rebellion, that the validity of a new government in a State, or of any change in its constitution or government depends on the recognition thereof by the political department of the pre-existing government, which had regularly derived its political power from the people themselves. Any change not so recognized is rebellion against the sovereignty of the people.

In January, 1861, the political department of the government of Missouri, the General Assembly and Governor, made a law calling a convention of the people. It enacted that the convention should assemble on the 28th day of February, 1861, and proceed "to consider the then existing relations between the government of the United States, the people and governments of the different States, and the government and people of the State of Missouri, and to adopt such measures for vindicating the sovereignty of the State, and the protection of its institutions, as shall appear to them to be demanded." The statute also clearly defined the merely advisory power of the convention, and fixed the conditions on which the political department of the State government would recognize the validity of its acts: the law expressly providing that "no act, ordinance, or resolution of said convention shall be deemed to be valid to change or dissolve the political relations of this State to the government of the United States, or any other State, until a majority of the qualified voters of this State, voting upon the question, shall ratify the same."

Elected by a meagre vote, after a canvass of less than a month, amid misapprehension and deception concerning the true issues of the crisis, the convention met on the appointed day, and proceeded to consider the "then existing" external political relations of the State. Composed mainly of inexperienced men, chosen on account of their local personal popularity, or of disinterested political corpses, vampires of the body politic, who were buried long ago by the sober judgment of the people, it yet had sufficient dread of the well known Southern principles and sympathies of the State to confine its action to the passage of resolutions against coercion of the seceded States, and in favor of reconciliation. It adjourned, after a very short session, in March, 1861. Its existence had legally ended, and its impotency had brought it into such general contempt that it, with difficulty, obtained from the General Assembly an appropriation of money to publish its meaningless debates and proceedings. But usurping the right of indefinite self-continuance, it provided for future meetings at the call of a committee of its own body.

On the 10th of May, 1861, an armed rebellion against the State sovereignty, and an invasion from other States, commenced at St. Louis, under circumstances of peculiar insolence and atrocity. The General Assembly, then full and in session at the State capital, with undisputed constitutional authority, immediately and unanimously enacted a law authorizing the Governor to take such measures as he might deem necessary or proper to suppress the rebellion and repel the invasion. Events soon disclosed that the government of the United States would not only abjure its constitutional obligation to aid in putting down the rebellion, but had actually instigated it. The people of Missouri being clearly in favor of withdrawing the powers they had delegated to the Government of the United States, and which it was so grossly abusing, but the occupation of the larger portion of the State by the rebels, preventing the manifestation of the people's will through the ballot-box, the Governor, as head of the political department of the State government, and by authority of the rebellion act, before mentioned, issued a declaration, at New Madrid, Missouri, on the 6th of August, 1861, recognizing and carrying into effect the change willed by the people of Missouri, and dissolving the connection of the State with the governments and people supporting the usurping authorities at Washington. In the following November, the political department of the State government, in further exercise of its authority to determine whether a change in the form of government of Missouri, had been willed by the sovereign people, declared the adoption of the constitution of the Confederate States of America by the people of Missouri. Thereupon, the State was regularly admitted into this Confederacy.

Shortly after the declaration of August 6th, 1861, a remnant of the convention met at Jefferson City, under the armed supervision of the rebels, its members being admitted to their own sessions by passes from the commander of alien soldiery. One of the last proceedings of the convention, at its session in the preceding March, had been to solemnly discuss, take written legal advice upon, and solemnly deny its own power even to vote money out of the State treasury, to pay its own necessary expenses; but this remnant of the body unblushingly claimed absolute sovereign power. It naturally became the ready tool of the invaders, and proceeded to consider the external relations of Missouri, so totally different from those existing in the previous February, and which alone the convention was qualified to discuss. It even usurped the authority to regulate the internal government and police of the State, levy troops and raise loans. The people having elected, in 1860, a State government, composed of men of known hostility to federal usurpation; this spurious convention assembled to "change the political relations of the State to the government of the United States," by a pretended ordinance deposing the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and General Assembly, elected directly by the people, and substituting for the two Executive officers, persons of known subserviency to the usurping Government at Washington, and members of the spurious Convention itself. It thus attempted to abolish the very political department on whose recognition its own acts depended for validity, and which alone had the authority to determine whether those acts conformed to the will of the people. The rebel Executive thus installed, sent two members of the spurious Convention to replace in the Senate of the United States the faithful Senators elected by the General Assembly of Missouri, and whom a remorseless sectional majority had expelled from their Senatorial seats. Men chosen to a Convention charged to adopt measures for vindicating the sovereignty of the State and protecting its institutions, laid the one at the feet of the President of the United States, and abandoned the other to the alien bandits and runaway negro soldiery. The Supreme Court of the State unanimously refused to recognize the usurping rebel government. Deprived of their Constitutional power, and persecuted in their persons and estates, those eminent Judges have furnished a noble proof of the purity and independence of our judiciary.

The spurious convention put its rebel government, under Hamilton R. Gamble, at once into operation, but with the timidity of novices in despotism, it directed that its usurping ordinance should be submitted to the people at the polls. A few months later, justly alarmed by the uncooled free spirit of our citizens, but grown bolder in crime, it again met, brought in absent members by force, so as to make a sham quorum, rescinded the proclamation issued for submitting its ordinance to the people and continued its rebel government, without even a pretence of consulting the popular will. Late in 1862, after a year's possession of our entire territory, impelled by the necessity of electing representatives to the Washington Congress, and inspired by hopes that an oppressed people, had been dragooned into acquiescence in its usurpation, the rebel government ordered an election for those representatives, and a General Assembly, but not for Executive officers or judges of the Supreme Court. In a State with a voting population of at least one hundred and eighty thousand, the meagre number of sixty thousand suffrages, a very large proportion of them notoriously illegal, was given at that election.

Fear, fanaticism and fraud, all combined, succeeded in bringing out a vote, not equal to two-fifths of that cast at the regular election in 1860, by virtue of which the present Constitutional Executive of Missouri, claims to represent her people. The voice of the people is stifled by tyranny; their will must be gathered from these undisputed facts of history. They clearly show that the repudiation of the spurious government by the sovereign people of Missouri is emphatic; that their regular constitutional government is recognized in the hearts of an overwhelming majority of her citizens; and that they cordially sanction its acts in repudiating all connection with the degenerate government at Washington and in uniting her destinies with those of her sister Confederate States of America.

Conscious that his authority is legitimate, the unrecalled gift of a free and noble people, the Executive of Missouri now with trusting confidence, appeals to Almighty God for protection and guidance in his efforts to aid in restoring their shattered political fortunes and recovering the inestimable liberties inherited from their ancestors.

When the Constitution of the State of Missouri imposed on me the duties of her Chief Magistrate, a sincere distrust of my ability to protect our State interests in the existing crisis of our affairs, as well as the impaired state of my health and a growing disinclination for public life, united in prompting me to order, on the three months previous notice required by the Constitution an election of a Governor by the legal voters within the military lines of this Confederacy. But of many Missourians consulted on the subject, all strongly disapproved of such a step. It would deprive the Constitutional State Government of the moral advantage it has over the spurious government of the rebels, in its being the only one of the two which is headed by an officer, directly elected by the whole people of Missouri to exercise executive power at this very time.

The difficulty is now carrying out in such an election, our constitutional principle "that all elections shall be free and equal," the probability of serious discords arising from a three months canvass in our camps by candidates for the office, as well as the impossibility of punishing fraud or violence at an election held outside of the territory of the State, and thus providing full safeguards for the purity of the ballot-box so as to avoid a contested election, furnished conclusive reasons for changing my purpose; and the proclamation already prepared, ordering such an election was never issued. Interpreting the direction of our constitution to order an election "as soon as may be" to mean as soon as it can be held with a reasonable compliance with other constitutional requirements, and as soon as the great body of our citizens can participate in it, I assumed the position of Governor of the State of Missouri, for such period as may elapse until an election can be held so as to obtain a fair expression of the will of the people, in regard to the selection of my successor, by the customary and established machinery of government. That period may be protracted beyond that of my own life. Missouri has now no General Assembly and consequently no Speaker of her House of Representatives. Josiah Child, Senator from Shannon county, elected in March, 1861, to serve as President pro tempore of our Senate for two years commencing on January 1st, 1863, has been dragged from his home by the soldiery of the rebel government, and murdered in open day with a refinement of cruelty rarely equalled in the annals of oriental despotism. The Governor elected in 1860 has died. The Lieutenant Governor elected in the same year has succeeded to the constitutional chief magistracy of the State. If our Constitution does not permit his providing against a future vacancy in that station before a regular election can be held in the State on the day fixed by the Constitution, his death, captivity, or other disability would totally deprive the State Government of an officer with constitutional authority to order a special election for a Governor or General Assembly, or to carry on the State Government in other matters. Such an event would produce an absolute deprivation of a State government until a regular election could be held and a meeting of the General Assembly take place at Jefferson City, as required by the Constitution when that body assembles at its first session otherwise than at the call of the Governor. This election cannot take place before August, 1864: a General Assembly thus chosen would not meet in regular session until December, 1864.

A provisional government spontaneously instituted in our camps, the only place where a numerous body of our citizens could assemble, would appear to many as one based on subordination of civil to military authority, expressly forbidden by our Constitution at all times and in all places. Different bodies of troops might select different citizens to compose the provisional government. Accessions to the ranks of our army might demand a change of chiefs of that government. The citizens remaining in the State, and those not in the camps, might be strongly tempted to repudiate a government in forming which they had had no influence, either by direct vote, or through a high officer of State, originally chosen by themselves in common with the remainder of the whole people. An anarchy of rival military chieftains, a caricature of Mexican pronunciamientos would be the probable result.

The political department of the State government has the exclusive right of deciding in advance, or subsequently, whether a new government for the people of a State conforms to the will of the people. Events have made the present Constitutional Executive of Missouri the sole remaining member of that political department. The other member, the last General Assembly of Missouri, by the Rebellion Act before cited, granted him authority to take such measures as he might deem necessary or proper to suppress the rebellion and repel the invasion commenced in 1861 and still continuing. What measure is more necessary or proper than one to provide against the accomplishment of the very object aimed at by the rebellion and invasion, the extinguishment or suspension of the constitutional government of the State? What officer or citizen would be constitutionally more competent than the chief, for the time being, of the political department of the State government to judge and announce, with the great additional authority thus conferred on him by the other member of that political department, what would be the will of the people of Missouri concerning the mode of preventing that suspension of all regular government, were they free to express that will through other representatives, or directly at the polls? Feeling it a duty to exert all my constitutional powers to prevent a discontinuance of the Constitutional State Government, I have consulted eminent legal counsel in regard to them. The Hon. Uriel Wright, the most distinguished constitutional lawyer of our State, for many years past at the head of the St. Louis bar, a leader in the only Convention called to revise the Constitution of Missouri, since it became a State, has prepared a lucid and conclusive opinion, which is appended to this order. His course as a member of the Convention of 1861, and his persecution by rebel leaders for his manly defence of the people's rights are sure guarantees against his leaning to the side of arbitrary power, even in defining the authority of a constitutional magistrate. In accordance with his opinion I have determined to provide for a future Provisional Government of Missouri in the event that one should become necessary.

Such a government based on the authority and recognition of the existing constitutional government which emanated directly from the people, would have the advantage of legal legitimacy. If sustained by the citizens within its reach would also be based on the consent, open and palpable, and not merely legally implied, of those it would govern. With both these advantages it could scarcely fail to obtain the recognition and support of the Confederate Government. Let every Missourian well consider the possible consequences, before he refuses his hearty adhesion to it. In 1849 commenced in Missouri the general agitation of those questions which have led to the existing war. The safest guide in selecting the citizens to be successive chiefs of a Provisional Government for Missouri, would be the choice made since 1849 by the people directly, at regular elections, or by the General Assembly, in time of peace, of citizens to fill those offices which represent the sovereignty of the State, either within its territory, or in the general government under which it then was, Governors, Lieutenant Governors, and Senators of the United States. That such citizens may well be regarded as representative men, is shown by the fact that of those living in 1861, every one has adhered to the Constitutional State Government and the cause of Southern rights. That a Missouri citizen of Northern birth, chosen Governor at a special election in 1857, mainly on local internal improvement issues, to fill a balance of a regular term, has supported the rebellion, forms no exception to the rule above stated. Two of those citizens are held within the enemy's lines, three are within our own, and prudence counsels the selection only of those, who are free to undertake the duties to be performed. In arranging the order in which they are to be called to the first place in a provisional government, the personal opinions or friendships of the existing Chief Magistrate would be improper guides; he must seek light from the regular action heretofore of the people, or their representatives, when in full possession of their constitutional rights. The more recent such action in elevating a citizen to official station, the freer is the impress which he bears of popular approval; this consideration has guided me in arranging that order of succession. It would call to the Provisional Governorship, in succession, Waldo P. Johnson, elected Senator in 1861, Truett Polk, elected Governor in 1856 and Senator in 1857, and Sterling Price, elected Governor in 1852.

I deem it best not to originate too extended an order of succession, but to direct that the citizen last exercising this trust shall have power to provide for a further continuance of the constitutional government of the State, according to the exigencies then existing and which cannot now be foreseen or even conjectured.

One cause alone of a vacancy in the Chief Magistracy, the resignation of the present Executive, is not provided for in this order. While I shall gladly seize an opportunity of retiring from so difficult a position, as soon as some other citizen can be duly qualified as my successor, imperious necessity alone could induce me to create the necessity for an actual Provisional Government by my declension of the duties entrusted to me by the vote of the people. Heroic in their endurance, as in their sacrifice by the people of Missouri are entitled to every sacrifice by their Chief Magistrate, in hastening the expulsion of their enemies from their territory, which can forward that great object.

It is of course my intention to order an election of Governor as soon as it can be generally held within the State. But previously, special elections will be ordered, when practicable, for members of the General Assembly. As soon as a majority of the full constitutional number of members in each branch of it shall have been elected, it will be convened, and the election of a President pro tempore of the Senate or Speaker of the House of Representatives, will at once follow this order. Therefore, as Lieutenant Governor of the State of Missouri, now holding the office and exercising the powers of its Governor and Commander-in-Chief, I am, as the sole surviving member of the political department of the regular constitutional government, by virtue of the authority in me vested by an Act of its General Assembly, approved on the tenth day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and entitled "an act to authorize the Governor of the State of Missouri to suppress rebellion and repel invasion," and in the name and on behalf of the people of the State of Missouri, I do hereby make, as measures which I deem necessary and proper to suppress the rebellion and repel the invasion in said act mentioned, the following orders:

I. In the event of the death, captivity, or other disability of the present Executive of the State of Missouri, thereupon until the due election and qualification of a regular Constitutional Governor, Lieutenant Governor, President pro tempore of the Senate, or Speaker of the House of Representatives, of said State, but no longer, the following named citizens shall in succession, be called to the position of Provisional Governor of said State, with authority to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of the regular Constitutional Governor thereof, to-wit: first, Waldo P. Johnson; second, Truett Polk; to succeed to said position in the event of the death, captivity, or other disability of Waldo P. Johnson, or his declension or resignation of said position, to-wit, Sterling Price, to succeed, to said position, if said Waldo P. Johnson and Truett Polk shall both become incapacitated to perform the duties thereof either by death, captivity or other disability, or by declension or resignation of said position.

II. Waldo P. Johnson is constituted Provisional Lieutenant Governor of the State of Missouri during the period when the regular Constitutional Lieutenant Governor shall hold the office of Governor; and whenever any of the citizens above named shall be Provisional Governor as aforesaid, the citizen named next in order of succession to said position, shall be Provisional Lieutenant Governor of the State.

III. Whenever any of said three citizens shall be such Provisional Governor, and at the time each of the other two shall be dead, in captivity or under disability, or have declined or resigned said position, then such Provisional Governor shall have authority to make such further orders as he may deem necessary or proper to continue, provisionally the Constitutional Government of said State.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Provisional Governor to order as soon as may be, on three months previous notice, a special election for a regular Governor of the State of Missouri, whenever such an election can be free and equal, and be held, within the State, as to obtain a fair and full expression of the will of the qualified electors of said State.

V. It shall be the duty of the Provisional Governor to order, from time to time, as opportunity may occur, special elections within the several counties of the State, for members of the Senate and House of Representatives thereof, and all other officers legally to be chosen by the people of such counties.

VI. As soon as a majority of the full constitutional number of members of each branch of the General Assembly shall have been thus elected, the Provisional Governor shall call a session of the General Assembly, to meet at such place as he may designate, and on a day, within a reasonable time thereafter, to be also named by him.

VII. Before entering on the duties of his office, every such Provisional Governor shall be sworn or affirmed to demean himself faithfully in office, and to support the Constitution of the Confederate States of America, and that of the State of Missouri as one of said Confederate States.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Missouri to be affixed, at my Executive office, this twentieth day of April, in the year of Our Lord, eighteen hundred and sixty-three.

THOS. C. REYNOLDS.

Governor of the State of Missouri.

ATTEST:

WARWICK HUGH, Secretary of State.

His Excellency, THOMAS C. REYNOLDS, Governor of Missouri.

1861-1865
You solicit my opinion upon the propositions involved in the following questions:

First. "The Governor elected in 1860 by the people of Missouri being dead—the term of the General Assembly elected in the same year having expired—no General Assembly having been since elected, and there being consequently no Speaker of the House of Representatives—the President pro tempore of the Senate, chosen in 1861 to serve for two years from the 1st January, 1863, having been murdered—the Constitution of the State not expressly providing for the succession of any officers to the Governorship, other than the Lieutenant Governor, the President pro tempore of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives—and the State being so occupied by the public enemy, that an election cannot be held within its limits, either for Governor or General Assembly—has the Lieutenant Governor, exercising the powers of Governor, and under the provisions of the act of the General Assembly, approved May 10th, 1861, entitled "an act to authorize the Governor of the State of Missouri to suppress rebellion and repel invasion, authority to provide for a Provisional Government of the State, in the event of his death, or disability, until an election can be held in the State?"

Second. "If he has such authority, what are the main principles of Representative Republican Government, which should guide him, in constituting such a Provisional Government?"

The questions propounded are of the gravest character, and fearfully ser. In all our history since we broke off from the British crown, no single case has arisen to invoke such questions. An interregnum is the greatest calamity which may befall a State, except its subjugation. The Constitutions of all the States seek to guard against it by appointing a succession of officers, who in certain contingencies, shall discharge the duties of the highest officer of State; while periodical elections at short intervals furnish the agencies by which its life as an organism may be preserved.

Missouri has been as mindful of her perpetuity as any one of the States, and our American History, up to the period when she changed her territorial form, led the framers of her Constitution to believe, that they had not only embodied in that organic instrument the fundamental idea of perpetuity, but by express provisions, had guarded against the danger of interregnum. Her wisest statesman did not foresee that in 1863—before her lifetime had reached the period of half a century, you as Lieutenant Governor would become the sole representative of her sovereignty as a State—that a flagitious military despotism, set up for a time within her limits, would by force and terror, destroy the constitutional machinery devised by them for the regular organic action of the will of her people—so that your death, or capture, or disability, would exhaust every express provision of the Constitution by which she could exist as a State. "The People," said Webster before the Supreme Court in the celebrated case of Luther vs. Borden, arising out of Dorr's rebellion—"are the source of all political power. Every one believes this. Where else is there any power? There is no hereditary Legislature, no large property, no throne, no prerogative."

But he adds—"the people must have Representatives. In England the representative system originated not as matter of right, but because it was called by the King, and at last grew up a constitutional representation of the people. In our system it grew up differently. It was because the people could not act in mass, and the right to choose a representative, is every man's portion of sovereign power.

The principles here embodied are vital. In America a people without a representative cannot constitute a State. The powers of this State are lodged, and distributed in departments. Those who fill the departments are representatives of the people.

Outside of these departments, there can be no exercise of the power of a State, and without living agents in these departments, the State can have no life. Now all the departments are framed on the principle of perpetuity. The General Assembly holds all the Legislative power of the State. It is to exist not for a season, or a year, or for a term of years, but for all time. It convenes (regularly) every two years, and every two years, through the elective franchise, it is supplied with living members. The Judicial department, is a perpetuity—and elections by the people, in conformity with organic rules, supply the vacancies which death, resignation, disqualification, or removal may create.

The Executive department, is a perpetuity. The Governor "holds his office for four years, and until his successor is duly elected and qualified"—a provision which lengthens his tenure to meet possible exigencies. Unlike the Legislature and the Courts, he, as the representative of the people, is always in session. His power is never intermittent. By the Constitution of Missouri, it is provided, that when the Governor dies, or becomes disqualified, the acting Governor, i. e. the Lieutenant Governor, the President pro tempore of the Senate, or the Speaker of the House of Representatives, as the case may be, must "as soon as may be" order an election of Governor by the people. The election must turn out the members of the General Assembly—and (as a consequence) the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives. It is therefore manifest that the framers of the Constitution relied mainly on the undisturbed agency of "free and equal elections" to secure a succession by which the State might live. So that the first question submitted to us may properly thus be put: In case of the death of the Governor of Missouri, or the public enemy, by preventing an election for his successor—by the murder of the President pro tempore of the Senate—or by defeating with the bayonet the right of the people to elect the members of the General Assembly, (thus rendering it impossible to have either a President pro tempore of the Senate, or Speaker of the House of Representatives) cause the existence of Missouri as a State, to be dependent upon the issue of your life, or death, or your disability? Can an intrusive and despotic power so occupy the State, as to leave its legal life time, to hang upon a tenure, even more frail than that by which any individual holds his life? I answer no. To answer otherwise would be to offer opposition a new temptation, and to arm it with a new weapon. It would add anarchy to the horrors of war. It would enable an enemy to destroy a State without conquering, or subduing the people.

Paradoxically concede to a nation the power and capacity to become an anarchy which an interregnum brings. In every Government whatever its kind, the evil is avoided by a successful regular or irregular. In some the hereditary principle furnishes the remedy—in others the military power acting upon an exigency determines the succession. If the Executive become insane, or otherwise incapable, or be of tender years, a regency provides the escape.

Somewhat in the system of Government no matter what its form, there is found power to avoid the death of a State. When James abdicated, Parliament found the remedy—as it created a regency on the disability of George. History is full of like precedents. It would be strange indeed to find our free Republican Institutions, an exception to a principle so wise and conservative.

The power is a necessary power. I know well how the doctrine of "necessity" has been turned against liberty, all the world over.

All Americans especially have been made to feel how much liberty can be masked in that one word—"necessity." "Liberty—Liberty" it has been made the cover of crimes at which humanity turns pale—but although the principle demands the utmost discrimination in its exercise, necessity is sometimes a legitimate source of power.

The framers of the Constitution of Missouri organized a State in perpetuity. They did not mean that the provisions of the Constitution should be so interpreted as to lead to anarchy. They meant emphatically to avoid an interregnum.

If the whole assembly has put it out of the power of the people of Missouri to work any part of the machinery of the Constitution for which its framers provided against an interregnum, it will be in harmony with the Constitution, as to work what is left untouched by the enemy, as to accomplish the design of the whole mechanism. There to act, is to exercise power in the spirit of those who made the Constitution. It is power wielded not to destroy, but to save a State. If it be right to exercise the power, there can be little doubt as to the agency which should use it. You are the Representative of the sovereignty of the State of Missouri—elected by the voice of our people. In your hands it is power employed, not only by one of the departments of government—not only by a legitimate representative of the people, but by a public functionary whose office was created for the specific purpose of saving the State from anarchy.

Thus far I have considered the question of power only as it springs out of your official character of Lieutenant Governor.

The act of the General Assembly of May 10th, 1861, entitled "an act to authorize the Governor to suppress rebellion and repel invasion," is a compendious statute. It clothes the Executive with all the power that body could delegate.

It authorizes him to take any and all measures necessary to suppress the rebellion and repel the invasion.

The preamble to the act recites some of the startling events which gave it birth. On the day of its passage and just prior thereto, an unlawful body of brutal, savage beings, numbering several thousands—

"A band of landless resolute"

"Sharked up"

by certain conspirators against the peace of the State—armed out of the stores of the Arsenal at St. Louis, and led by an officer wearing the uniform of the United States—surrounded and "captured as prisoners of war" our Militia in lawful and peaceful training at Camp Jackson. This astounding outrage upon the Constitution of the United States, and the rights of the State of Missouri, took the hue of a bloody tragedy, from the attendant indiscriminate massacre of the unarmed and defenceless men, women and children present at the scene. The entire movement, (outrage and tragedy) was an unlawful invasion of the State, and a flagrant rebellion against her rightful power and authority. The propriety and necessity of the statute became even more manifest under subsequent events. Outrage followed outrage in swift succession. The invading force seized the Capital—took possession of the public archives—installed a Military Governor in place of the Executive elected by the people, and by a series of aggressions ultimately expelled the Representatives of the people from the limits of the State.

The powers vested in the Executive by this law, embrace measures as distinguished from laws—specific and special measures, not general rules of action; but they include every measure necessary and proper to vindicate the outraged authority of the State.

My answer to the first question, is, that on the case presented, the Lieutenant Governor, charged by the Constitution with all the powers of Governor, can rightfully provide for a Provisional Government of the State of Missouri, until an election can be held in the State.

The second question is, "what are the main principles of Representative Republican Government, which should guide him, in constituting such a Provisional Government?"

One principle, never to be lost sight of, in framing the Provisional Government, is, that it should be so constructed as to yield to the regular action of our Constitution, at the earliest practicable moment. Born of a great State necessity, it must not survive that necessity a day.

It should be framed, as near as may be, in conformity with all the analogies of the Constitution.

It should have for its care—the people—the whole people of Missouri.

Its aims should be their aims, and its administration should be a true exponent of the popular will.

There are but two ways in which it can be organized. One is by election, the other by appointment.

In the existing exigencies of the State, the method by election, would not be in harmony with the principles of Representative Republican Government. The election could not take place on Missouri soil, and beyond her boundaries only a fragment of her people could appear at the polls. One hundred thousand voters—the present victims of oppression in the bastilles, or within the wider prisons of their farms—who disarmed are waiting with liberty-loving patience the hour of their deliverance, could have no voice in such election. Out of the State, the safeguards of the Ballot Box could not be applied, and a political canvass would be hurtful to the discipline of the camp.

It seems to me that both principle and expediency unite in suggesting that the utterances of the popular will of Missouri, should be postponed until the time of her emancipation.

When the exile can return to his home, when the citizen of Missouri can sit at his own hearthstone, lie down at night—or walk abroad over his fields, guarded by the protectingegis of the Constitution; when sovereign law shall once again surround his dwelling, and inspire a consciousness of security, stronger than that which a king may feel encircled by his servile and armed myrmidons; when the spy shall no longer skulk near his abode; when the detective shall no longer sit at his table, or sleep under his roof; when the inquisitor shall no longer creep to his side to catch and report, to military power, every whisper of freedom; when the bastiles shall be overthrown, and the public enemy—a vandal horde—shall be driven from every foot of her territory; in that day, let Missouri open her Ballot Box—but never till then.

Appointment, the only alternative, is in keeping with Representative Republican Institutions. In the case of Luther vs. Borden, 7th Howard's U. S. Reports, page 1 and sequens—it was settled by the Supreme Court of the United States—that under our institutions, a new Government cannot be set up in a State without the consent of the old;—that in forming a new government, the old government must either take the initiative, or give its assent by after ratification;—and that it is the exclusive province of the political power of the old government, to determine whether the new government has validity. When Rhode Island became a State, she did not form a Constitution, but kept to her old Colonial Charter. The people dissatisfied with the Charter, met together in Convention, made a Constitution and held a popular election under its provisions, by which it was adopted. The Charter Government did not initiate the reform, nor consent to it afterwards.

It was held by the Court that the absence of consent was fatal to the validity of the new Government. The old Charter Government was sustained, the new Government perished. Dorr was convicted of treason for attempting to maintain it by force, and afterwards the old Government taking the initiative—a new Government was formed, under which Rhode Island now exists. If the political power of a State (Governor and Legislature) must originate new Government—the right to institute Provisional Government on a proper emergency cannot be denied. As there exists in Missouri no Legislature—the Governor from necessity is the depository of the political power of the State.

Finally—in selecting the agents of the Provisional Government—the principles of Representative Republican Government require that the appointing power should respect the estimation in which such agents are held by the people of Missouri. A fair guide in ascertaining such estimation, is the elevation of citizens by the people at general elections, or by their representatives in time of peace—to officers charged with upholding the sovereignty of the State, in the Executive chair or in the Senate of the United States.
